IKERE LG BOSS ADAMOLEKUN ENGAGES STAKEHOLDERS
ON 2026 BUDGET PREPARATION

...Setting the Pace for Participatory Budgeting at the Grassroots

In fulfilment of the directive of the Ekiti State Governor, Mr. Biodun Abayomi Oyebanji, on inclusive governance, the Executive Chairman of Ikere Local Government, Hon. (Sq. Ldr. Rtd.) Olu Egbefoda Adamolekun, has engaged the people of the local government in a consultative meeting on the preparation of the 2026 budget.

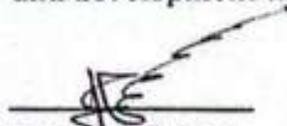

The meeting, held at the Council Secretariat, brought together representatives from all wards across Ikere, who outlined their needs and expectations for inclusion in the new budget.

Those in attendance included the Vice Chairman, Councillors, Secretary to the Local Government, Supervisors and Advisers, the Head of Local Administration (HLA), and Directors from various departments.

Stakeholders highlighted areas such as road rehabilitation, health care, education, youth empowerment, and rural development as key priorities.

Chairman Adamolekun assured the people that their inputs would be reflected in the 2026 fiscal plan, in line with Governor Oyebanji's vision of inclusive and people-oriented governance.

He reaffirmed his administration's commitment to transparency, accountability, and development that truly reflect the wishes and aspirations of the people.
